The children's Christmas service will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, also in the new parish hall, following which there will be a Christmas party, which will include the Hildebrand Puppet Show.

Final decision has yet to be reached as to whether the Church itself can be dedicated on December 21 in time for the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services.

I was a calm and philosophical fellow until I tangled with the more abundant life ("retail merchandising" we of the trade call it) and now I am fit to be tied and gift wrapped. The hurly-burly of commerce was something you read about in the American Magazine. Never did I think it would touch this lotophagous corner of the world. What happened? Peg and I start

"gadgets unlimited"

What happens next? Competition rears its hydra-head. I go to Nielsen's Grocery for a bottle of Schenley's Instantaneous Rat Poison Antidote and Universal Aphrodisiac ($2.63 inc. tax) and discover they are selling gadgets—under the counter. Furthermore I catch Bill Froh from Carleton's Grocery (canned pheasant ($6.50) buying apricots from Nielsen and heaven only knows where Nielsen buys his stuff. So we are going to put in a line of groceries at

"gadgets unlimited"

and if you don't find what you want, like imported English seat sticks priced to peg the pound, or those stunning $15.00 jewel rolls (Carmel Bakery is not in on this deal) or, what the hell, Silly Putty at one buck, as I said if you don't find what you want at

"gadgets unlimited"

you can get five gallons of gasoline at Walt's Dairy handsomely gift boxed. Or go on down to Nielsen's Grocery and ask him what he's got under the counter. (Carmel Better Business and General Frustration Society take note) specially Corum Jackson, Real Estate, Insurance and Bum Jokes. And Mike Gould, too, who is in a hammerhead still waiting for me to get this copy out which same was delayed by a temporary shortage of Silly Putty ($1.00, fair traded, and don't ask for no reduction until next year when prices will be worse than ever). Well, we got the whole Post Office (including Emile, the Democrat's darling) lined up like an old-fashioned bucket brigade from here to Wichita and the damn stuff comes through. The only thing that ameliorates the horrid hazards of shopkeeping is when you can offer something like the Nut-Brown Chipper, $2.00, an English Import for cutting French fries free from fingers, or the Renex Bacon Grill, also available at Village Hardware (Clayton and us has not got together on the price so do your shopping early). Well, it makes you feel downright noble to be putting things like these in the American home but what gets you down is like when Harold Nielsen puts in those terrific pencils just because he is short of potatoes. It reminds me of the drunk who gave the bartender (Whitney's, Old Spode, Sterling, Steuben glass and Chippendale) a lobster as a tip. The bartender says, "Gee, thanks, Mister. Just what I need. I'll take him home for dinner." The drunk says, "No, don't do that. Take him to the movies, he's had his dinner."

If this isn't a Messy Christmas it won't be the fault of

Post Office Decision Expected Soon

Officials from the Post Office Department are now in Carmel studying the question of the location of the Post Office after the present lease on the Leidig building expires next spring.

With no inside information to back up our prediction, The SPECTATOR makes a guess that the Post Office will move up Dolores Street to the south east corner of Fifth into a new building to be erected at that location.

Community Chest Drive Misses Goal but Ends

The military population on the Peninsula was the only group which exceeded its quota in the current Community Chest drive which ends today, Friday.

Officials of the Chest point out that it operates every day in the year and contributions will be greatly appreciated at any time. They also urge those who have made pledges but have not yet sent in their checks to do so.

Camel Unincorporated Elects Directors

At a meeting in the High School last Tuesday, Carmel Unincorporated elected directors for the coming year. They are Capt. Archer M. R. Allen, incumbent president of the organization, Dr. A. L. Van Meter, Gen. E. G. Chapman, Thomas Perry, Ritter Holman, Mrs. Helen Lambert, Stanley Peddar, Edward W. Roberts, William N. Eklund, and Helen Clark Cranstoun.

Another Valley P.O. Petition Circulating

Once again there are changes hoped for and being planned in connection with Carmel Valley Post Office services. This time Mrs. Robert Stanton is sponsoring a petition to have the Lower Valley served by an R.F.D. route instead of the present Star Route service.

As Mrs. Stanton's great-uncle was the founder of Rural Free Delivery, it is only natural that she should know of the many greater advantages of this route.

The Lower Valley service is not connected with the Robles Del Rio Post Office but is served directly out of Monterey. Under the present set-up residents off the main highway do not receive their mail in front of their homes but must go to the Monterey Post Office for packages.

Come To The Big Animal Christmas Party And Win a Prize, Too

Every day between now and Christmas see the Animal's Party at the Del Monte Lodge Shops

There's a Toyland Forest right on the lawn in front of the Pebble Beach Shops and many, many animals are there for their Christmas party. Boys and girls below the age of 11 who come closest to estimating the number of animals will win prizes. They are not hard to find and they are all in plain sight.

All you do is get an entry blank from one of the 12 shops. Have whoever brings you write your name and address on it and then go out and count the animals. Put the number on your entry blank and give it to the storekeeper who will turn it over to the judges. When the contest is over December 24th, the boy or girl who came closest will get $25.00 and the next 10 closest will get $5.00 each! It is a great deal of fun and grown-ups will like it, too, because it gives them plenty of time to do their Christmas shopping in 12 different kinds of stores.

There are beautiful imported and domestic gifts from $1.00 and up. Many wonderful bargains from the Peninsula's smartest shops.

1. NO PARKING PROBLEM HERE. Unlimited free parking right next to the shopping Arcade.
2. OPEN FROM 10 A.M. TO 9 P.M. (Wonderful Christmas lighting).

Animal Xmas Party At Pebble Beach Shops

Someone came up with a cute idea starting this year what we predict will be an annual event at Pebble Beach. It's an Animal Christmas Party sponsored by the Pebble Beach Merchants' Association.

The lawn in front of the shops has been turned into a forest of Christmas trees. In the forest, along the walks and even on the roofs of buildings have been placed many intriguing animals (see pictures). Boys and girls (under eleven) who visit the area and want to guess at the number of animals can win prizes by entering a contest. The one who comes closest to guessing the correct number will win $25.00; the next ten closest will receive $5.00 each.

Entry blanks for the contest may be procured from any one of the 12 shops, which, by the way, will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. until Christmas.

Musical Christmas Event Is Planned For Armed Forces Personnel At "Y"

The Musical Arts Club of the Monterey Peninsula, in conjunction with the Armed Services YMCA, will present a musical Christmas program, December 17, at 2:30 p.m. The program will be given in the Armed Services YMCA Building at El Estero and Webster Streets, Monterey.

Three soloists will perform, as well as a women's trio--the Treble Clef Trio--consisting of Della Daniels, Eleanor Kruse and Adele Dankworth, whose accompanist is Eleanor Kidwell. The members of this group are local singers who have done ensemble singing and have formed their group just for the joy of singing. They will give four numbers: "Bless this House," by Brahe; "Oh, Holy Night," by Adams; "Silent Night," by Gruber, and "You'll Never Walk Alone," by Rodgers, from the light opera "Carousel."

Margaret Lee Fisher has been organist at the Church of the Wayfarer for several years. As her contribution to the program she will present Christmas music from many lands. "Carol of the Bells" represents Slovak music; "Let Carols Ring" is a Swedish Christmas number, and "Christmas in Sicily" by Yon, of course, is from Sicily. Mrs. Fisher, formerly a pupil of Wallace Sabin, has arranged for an organ vespers series at the Church of the Wayfarer, featuring Peninsula organists. Mrs. Fisher recently played at the Patee home in Pebble Beach. On this program she will play a Hammond organ loaned by James Farlinger, who will also appear.

Mr. Farlinger will present organ selections of Brahms and Grieg: "Lo, Now a Rose Ere Blooming" and "Norwegian Dance." He was a student of organ in Chicago and Rock Island, Illinois, and is at present organist for the First Baptist Church of Monterey and the T. A. Dorney Funeral Home.

John Farr, baritone soloist, another member of the performing group, is instructor of vocal and instrumental music at Carmel High School and is director of the Peninsula Male Chorus. He is a graduate of the College of the Pacific Conservatory of Music and studied voice at University of Southern California under Lillian Wilson. He has appeared in the Bach Festival Chorus and sung the baritone solos in the Salinas production of the Messiah, as well as appearing in many Peninsula programs as guest soloist. His songs will be "Bux Who May Abide" and "The People That Walk in Darkness," both from the Messiah of Handel, and "Jesu Bambino" of Pietro Yon. Mrs. Fisher will accompany him.

Guest tickets may be arranged for by telephoning 7-3972.

CARMEL FOUNDATION PRESENTS

FREE YULETIDE CONCERT

By Henry Dunakin

A Yuletide gift of unusual value is being presented in Sunset Auditorium, Carmel, on Friday, December 29, at 8:30 p.m.: a Festival of Music and Dance.

This present is made possible by the Carl Cherry Foundation, an organization that evolved a few years back for the purpose of aiding the creative artist. The Foundation has been quietly doing its job of noble, unprejudiced altruism, with several persons of worthy abilities having been given the opportunity to have their efforts audited and appreciated. In the present-day world, the accent of which is discord, the necessity for spiritual reunion through the universality of the arts cannot be stressed too often. In keeping with the true spirit of Christmas, that of giving without obligation or thought of reward, everyone will be welcomed in joining this festival of joy and peace.

The unique "gift" is comprised of a program divided into two sections. The first portion will feature the Madrigal Guild of Berkeley, under the direction of Eileen Washington. The group will sing a cycle of early madrigals, featured soloists will sing lute songs and there will be music rejoicing in the spirit of the Nativity. The second portion of the program will be devoted to the Dance. Mr. Henry Kersh, who has inspired many California audiences by his expressions, will recreate a series of antique and religious dances. A trio of piano, violin and violoncello will complement Mr. Kersh with a background of Renaissance and Baroque music.

Everyone from far and wide is invited, the only admission being his acceptance. No tickets or reservations are necessary. The Festival will be held one night only, December 29, at 8:30 p.m., in Sunset Auditorium, Carmel.

Xmas Party at Carmel Woman's Club

The bridge section of the Carmel Woman's Club held its Christmas party on December 11, with Mrs. W. C. Peterson, chairman, in charge. Prizes for each table were donated by Mrs. Nellie G. Leyman.

Hostesses were Mrs. H. M. Lansdowne, Mrs. William Heathorne, Mrs. S. T. Hughes and Mrs. Fenton Grigsby. Mrs. Charles de Vault and Mrs. Norman Reynolds poured.

The next general meeting of the club will be held January 8, 1951, on which occasion Kent Roberts, well known author, will be the speaker.

Party In the Valley

There will be a Community Christmas party in the Airway Village, Carmel Valley, December 22, at 7:30 P.M.

The party is for all the children in the Valley. Each child attending will receive a filled stocking. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus will arrive in the fire truck and Christmas music will add to the gaiety.

All the stores in the village have contributed to the party, which is chairmaned by Leo G. Scettrini of the Stirrup Cup. Mr. Scettrini has collected a sizable amount of money, and has contributed his juke box for the music.

Tau Mu Party

Tau Mu held its annual Christmas party and initiation of officers at the home of Mrs. Robert Pickett in Pacific Grove, December 12. After a short business meeting, gaiety replaced seriousness as Santa Claus distributed gifts.

The initiation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Eldon Covell, retiring president. Mrs. J. B. Phillips was initiated as the new president, Mrs. Pierce Parsons as vice president, Mrs. George Smith as recording secretary, Mrs. Calvin Flint as corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Robert Pickett as treasurer.

Since it was a "come-as-you-are" party the result was hilarious, for many members had been caught unawares.

Community Center Auxiliary Luncheon

Last Monday at Casa Munras, Monterey, the Community Center Auxiliary held a luncheon meeting. Each member made the contribution of a basket for a needy family. A musical program was arranged by Mrs. R. E. Dankworth, with solo numbers rendered by Mrs. Ray Baugh. Mrs. Harry Raine gave two readings.

The president, Mrs. Clifford Day, conducted a short business meeting prior to the entertainment.

Your Children's Playthings

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

MOST of us have only so much money to spend on toys. We would like to spend this money intelligently, spend it for sturdy toys which not only amuse but also educate, for playthings with a purpose. Year by year more of such toys are made available but these toys rarely get the widest promotion as they are not always the best-sellers. Often the toys which sell best are poorest educational value. We just have to go looking for the best.

For the baby before he creeps and walks, a few safe things he can handle and make noise with and widen his muscular and sensory experiences, without undue excitement, are desirable. As he or a bit-older child will put objects to the mouth he should not be able to suck paint from them or injure his eyes with them or swallow parts of them.

Muscular Control

As soon as the child begins to creep and walk, a soft, safe object that does not roll too easily and something he can push and pull amuse him with profit to his muscular development and control. Too, he enjoys more objects he can manipulate. He soon begins to put smaller objects into larger ones, as spools or blocks or clothespins into a pan or empty cereal box.

From two to three or four he needs a small cart or wagon in which he can haul in the house, blocks and other small objects, and a tiny pail in which he can carry them about; very small wheel toys such as car, truck or train he can push about or pull by a string; a set of blocks he can use for years, creating with them more and more as he grows older; a sturdy nest of blocks for fitting into one another and building a pyramid; other toys for fitting parts into larger holes of various shapes and sizes; and simple cars without wheels, later some with wheels, which he can easily fasten together into a train.

Fit Things Together

This child likes to fit things together—dominoes into their box, sturdy wooden jig-saw puzzles, beginning with only a few pieces and having more pieces as he develops further skill; some stuffed toys, of course, to cuddle, and to enjoy later in all sorts of imaginary play.

Hammer toys, too, such as have large round pegs to drive part-way through holes and back again, appeal greatly to the youngster from fifteen months to three or four; after which he can learn with some early help to drive short, large-headed nails into soft wood or the like. And toys with which he can imitate adults and "help Mother." Also dolls to dress and undress and tea sets and the like, for make-believe fun.

Grows Older

The child needs at five or six more advanced simple tools, with more and more added as he grows older, culminating in a well-

PAUL WHITMAN

Peninsulites were saddened Tuesday to learn of the sudden death of Paul Whitman, noted Pebble Beach artist, who was also well known in civic activities. Death came after his return by air from a particularly gruelling session on State business in Sacramento.

Mr. Whitman was 53 at the time of his death. In addition to his wife, he leaves two sons and a daughter. One of the sons, Colden Whitman, lives in Carmel. Funeral services were held yesterday at the Little-Chapel-by-the-Sea Crematorium in Pacific Grove.

Editor of The Spectator

Dear Mr. Gould:

A report is in circulation that I have subscribed five hundred or a thousand dollars in the reorganized Wharf Theatre enterprise in Monterey. The two hundred fifty stockholders in the Carmel Playhouse corporation and the local investing public generally will be interested to know that this report is erroneous.

The fact is that I was an invited guest at the reorganization meeting; it was announced there that henceforth the Wharf would be an "actors' theatre," owned and operated by local players; it was a good-will gesture on my part, as well as a courtesy on the part of the Wharf group, that I then and there subscribed for one share of their project (which will cost me twenty-five dollars and no more) and that they accepted my subscription.

My preoccupation will continue to be the construction of Carmel Playhouse at the earliest practicable moment.

Yours sincerely,
Edward Kuster

equipped workshop by the time he is twelve or older.

Let us look constantly for tools and playthings which will encourage creative fun, suited to the child's degree of development—graded construction sets, for example. Let us think constantly of his gain in physical, social and mental ways in having fun with the playthings we choose as gifts for him.

I have just prepared a graded shopping list of good toys, which may be had by writing me in care of this paper enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope; also a graded list of books, in like manner; which list includes some books which have stood the test of time as well as some published recently.

Carmel Work Center Notes

By Carol Tindell

Did you know that we have lots of attractive gifts for men-- In fact you can do your shopping for practically the entire family at the Carmel Work Center shops.

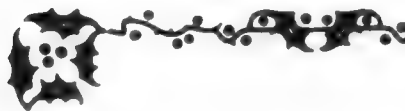

Our smart tailored cuff links in silver make handsome gifts-- there are also some clever cuff links made of enamel on copper. Then there are those extra-long plaid wool ties-- very reasonable and very good-looking.

For his den or study you can't go wrong if you give him one of our hand-tooled leather lamps with a suede shade. The lamps are in those warm saddle leather browns. Another leather gift that is so handsome are the hand-tooled writing pads-- or the albums.

For that all night poker game the Brandt Studios have made extra large ash trays and to go with the ash trays are Sedgewick of Carmel's beautifully made wooden cigarette boxes.

Remember--all these gifts and everything we have is designed and made by the Craftsmen of the Peninsula. Whatever you are looking for, you are sure to discover at either our Carmel Shop in Seven Arts Court on Lincoln Street or at our Pebble Beach Shop.

SPORT SPOTS

By Kurt von Meier

The Carmel Varsity kept up its winning ways last week by swamping the Gonzales "Spartans" 25-17 on the orange and black hardwood. The Padre cagers displayed mid-season form in winning their first league contest in as many starts. An old jinx which says: Carmel teams lose the majority of athletic contests when played at Gonzales, was broken by the Carmel victory.

Ken Wightman's cold didn't stop him from canning 12 points and high point honors for the night. Hank Overin was right behind him with eight digits.

The effective screen plays used by Gonzales were bobbled at the basket. This difference in Carmel's accurate shooting and Gonzales' sloppy tries was the deciding margin for the Padres.

The real thriller of the evening proved to be an exciting preliminary affair in which the Padrecitos edged out the Spartans 17-16. Jerry Coleman sparked the Little Padres by sinking eight counts. All-CCAL candidate Butch Laugenour won the runner-up trophy for high-point man with five scores. Both of the former and Bob Campbell played the whole contest, which was impressive because of Gonzales' stunning win over the highly-rated Salinas limiteds the previous weekend.

Easy-to-Fix Main Dishes

By ALICE DENHOFF

SO much to do now, what with holiday and gift shopping, we thought that you might be in the market for some dishes that are easily and quickly prepared.

For an excellent baked fish casserole for 4, cook 6 oz. pkg. medium egg noodles in boiling salted water until barely tender, about 6 min. Drain well. Place in bottom of greased shallow baking dish, about 10 x 6 inches. Flake 7-oz. can tuna fish, drained, with fork and sprinkle evenly over noodles. Quarter 3 hard-cooked eggs and arrange evenly over flaked tuna. Melt 3 tbsp. butter over moderate heat, then add 3 tbsp. finely diced onion; cook for a minute. Stir in 3 tbsp. flour. Add one c. milk and contents of 3-oz. can sliced, broiled mushrooms. Cook, stirring the while, till sauce thickens. Add 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 1/4 tsp. Worcestershire sauce and 1/2 c. diced American cheese (2 oz.). Stir until cheese is melted. Pour sauce over tuna fish and eggs. Bake at 350 F. until thoroughly hot and lightly browned, about 30 min. Serve at once.

For a delicious shrimp curry for 4, melt 2 tbsp butter over low heat. Add 1/4 c. finely-chopped onion; let cook for about 3 min. stirring frequently. Stir in 1/2 tsp. curry powder. Add contents of 10 1/2 oz. condensed cream of green pea soup. Gradually add 1/2 c. milk, stirring until smooth, after each addition. Add contents of 3 oz. can chopped broiled mushrooms. Stir smooth. Drain and add 5 oz. can shrimp. Bring to boil, then lower heat and let simmer for 10 min. to develop flavor. Meanwhile prepare 5 oz. pkg. pre-cooked rice according to package directions. Serve curried shrimp and mushrooms over hot rice.

The size of the American dollar bill was reduced in 1929. Its value began to shrink long before that.

Community to be Honored By Youth Center Members

In appreciation for the gift by the community of the Carmel Youth Center building, members will present a program of entertainment for everyone, at no charge, in the Sunset School auditorium, Monday evening, at 8 P.M.

During the evening much fun is anticipated. There will be dance skits, humorous narrations, musical specialties and Glee Club singing of Christmas carols. The public is urged to attend this appreciation program.

Mimi Townsend Honored

Mrs. William D. Powell gave an engagement "cocktail-barbecue" party in honor of Mimi Townsend, on Tuesday of this week. Miss Townsend's wedding will be tomorrow, December 16.

Whitings Return To Carmel

Colonel and Mrs. Whiting, of Carmelo and Second, Carmel, have recently returned from Piedmont, where they attended a luncheon and garden club tea at Miss Helen Catlin's. While in the Bay area they attended the Headdress Ball at the Museum of Fine Arts in San Francisco.

The Whitings plan to leave soon for a trip to Tucson, Arizona, where they will visit Colonel Whiting's brother and sister-in-law in their new home.

Philip Mothersall Near Korea

According to a letter received from Mrs. Mothersall, now living in her new home in Coronado, Phil Mothersall, who for a time was on the staff at the Navy Line School here, is now in service somewhere off Korea.

Carmel Legion Annual 49'er Party

The eleventh Annual Forty Niner party will be held Saturday evening, December 16, at the Carmel Legion Hall. Festivities this year will not only mark a succession of successful Christmas parties but will also be the occasion for Legionnaires and their guests to view the newly remodeled club rooms.

The evening's activities, which will include games, refreshments and dancing, will commence at 8 P.M.

Since invitations are limited, it is requested that all Legion members intending to bring guests see George Knapp or Commander Norman Winslow, without delay, to obtain invitations.

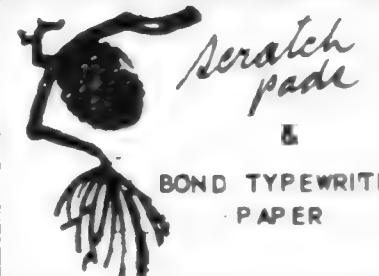

P.S. Of course she loves nylon undies.

Please say you saw it in the SPECTATOR... That will help me have a better column. --Betsy Abbott.

FOR THAT FRONT LINE FIGURE--take advantage of the Peninsula's outstanding corset shop--RHETTA CALHOUN'S. This shop is a most pleasant place in which to shop. There will be no worries about your car, for there is plenty of parking space nearby. Have Mrs. Calhoun fit you with a strapless evening bra to wear under the elegant little bodice of your gala evening dress. Every single brand of high type bra is to be found in this shop, and with the experienced, friendly help in the fittings, you will get a new lift and unquestionably will become a permanent customer of MRS. RHETTA CALHOUN, at 108 Webster Street, near the Post Office, in Monterey.

A ROOM DEVOTED TO ORIGINAL PRINTS AND ETCHINGS, now in the Matthiessen Antique Shop above the Stocking Shop, is one of the most authentic in California. The prints are dated from 1750 to 1850 and include such prizes as an original Van Dyke etching, stipple engravings from Holbein's drawings, original colored print by Rowlandson, the famous English caricaturist, sporting prints by Henry Alken, finest French fruit prints by Duhamel, English Aquatint (an etching process), French copper plates, fashion and costume prints from 1800 to 1875, early Continental maps dated 1650, 15th century Persian miniatures, and colored flower prints of all types.

These masterpieces are not expensive, ranging from $1.00 to $20.00, and would be treasured gifts. The subject matter is so varied that it would not be difficult to choose one that would fit in the home or with the hobby of the person for whom the gift is intended. In any event, on your Christmas tour don't pass up this splendid collection at MATTHIESSEN ANTIQUES--above the Stocking Shop, on Ocean Avenue, Carmel.

ALL PURE, HANDSOME, SUBTLE, SILK SCARFS, with beautiful designs from photographs of real dogs, cats and birds, are one of the exquisite under-three-dollar gifts to be found at the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP at 489 Alvarado Street in Monterey. There are also imported Italian chiffon scarfs of floral prints with a Paisley look for only $1.95. These are ideal for wearing under coats and will really sharpen your looks. They may also be worn as head scarfs in the evening when you especially want to effect that soft feminine look. Other scarfs may be had of plain colors and some with scalloped edges, hand turned, with unusual designs. Full fashioned hose from $1.15 to $1.65 are available in all the winter shades. Metal belts, also in the under-three-dollar bracket, are available in the popular Star pattern, Concho style (silver), snake belts, and mesh belts in two widths. Finally, the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP, in this popular-priced gift department, offers shortie nighties for $2.95. They're very cute... made out of batiste with eyelet embroidery trim.

FOR THE SPORTSMAN...a very attractive necktie clip in silver, with matching studs, is to be found at THE CYPRESS GIFT SHOP in the Mission Inn, at 456 Tyler Street in Monterey. This unusual gift has a real fly centered in both clip and studs. The set can be had in either red or yellow. The clip will also double as a coin-holder. Clever scatter pins, designed as grasshoppers, turtles and frogs, make ideal gifts for the person who likes amusing accents to wear with suits or coats. Plaque wall planters of decorated ceramic--from $2.00 to $3.50--are new, and I haven't seen anything like them anywhere else. One set of three, with flying ducks, is priced at $8.00. With ruyals placed behind these ducks in the planter, the effect would be most appropriate for a den. Another unusual gift here is an individual pyrex coffee container. This can be placed in the cup or on the table and one can help himself, either in bed or at the table. Clay-Lockett silver and turquoise jewelry is a specialty of Mrs. Mildred Curti, owner of this shop. Some of the graduated beads are plain and some are etched. They are as light as a feather, even though they look heavy. Others are coin-shaped with etchings, which Mrs. Curti tells me are new in Indian jewelry. These beads are strung on hand-made flax. The stones in the necklaces are individually set. There is also a wide selection of bracelets, earrings, lockets and pins to choose from at THE CYPRESS GIFT SHOP...and Mrs. Curti cordially invites you and your friends to drop in for a visit.

I WANT TO BE HAPPY BUT I CAN'T BE HAPPY UNTIL I MAKE YOU HAPPY TOO! WOMEN! TAKE UP THIS CAUSE! Sounds like we're suffragettes? No, not at all. We're just being smart, positive and to the point. We want to be pleased! If you aren't good at sending out small, suggestive hints and have no knack for beating around bushes, just come right out point blank and say to your man: "Look, darling, so that you won't have to worry about my style, my color preference or my size, why don't you this Christmas give me a gift certificate from THE CINDERELLA SHOP? Is that so hard to do? Why, no." Then you continue: "You'll be happy too, for all you have to worry about is the amount you feel you can afford. Whatever it is, I'll be very happy to use it for something that I really can use and that I've always wanted. THE CINDERELLA SHOP, next to the Bank of Carmel on Ocean Avenue, has so many beautiful things, but I won't tell you about them now. I'll wait and surprise you, and see how easy it is! Thank you, darling." Girls! do this and everybody will be happy.

I ASKED RIKKI'S HUSBAND (WHO WITH RIKKI OPERATES RIKKI'S KITCHEN) to tell me the story of RIKKI'S FAMOUS FRUIT CAKES--and here it is: "Rikki makes our fruity fruit cake in our little flower-surrounded kitchen after she has steeped herself in the lore of home-made cakecraft. We won't even let her go to Salinas for a holiday during this period for fear she should be contaminated by modern, big-city methods. So there she abides, unhurried and at peace, with bowls of rosewater at her elbow, and little sprigs of rosemary and great cracks of butter and fruit, making glorious cakes full of the goodness that is a combination of England and America.

"Could fruit cakes such as these be made within earshot of a London motor-bus or Salinas railroad station? We trow not." These are the words of the lord and master of RIKKI'S KITCHEN, on Mission near Sixth, in May Court, Carmel.

FAREWELL BALL ENDS SOCIAL SEASON at U.S. Naval School, Monterey. Naval officers and ladies are shown at the annual formal Farewell Ball held Saturday, December 9, at the U.S. Naval School, General Line, in Monterey. Among those attending were (left to right) Cdr. and Mrs. J. E. Parks, Mrs. W. S. Kirkpatrick, Jr., Mrs. A. M. Zakarian, Lt. and Mrs. J. L. Gallahar, and Lt. Zakarian. The ball, which ended the social season at the Naval School, provided an opportunity for departing student and staff officers and their wives to bid goodbye to the many friends they have enjoyed here during the past year. The current class at the Line School graduates today, December 15, and the 500 students and many staff members will depart for new duty stations.

While the departure of the Navy Line School class is cutting deep into the overall Navy complement of the Monterey Peninsula, it is only temporary, because plans already are underway for the opening early in January of a Naval Reserve Officers Induction School at the Monterey Naval School, and in February a new line school class is scheduled to convene. Its size will be about as large as the class now ending.

CARMEL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

MIAMI BEACH

MIAMI BEACH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS WONDERING how Carmel, California, became so well known among visitors and natives within the past month. The reason is not hard to find. It's due to Carmel's delegation to the recent National Real Estate Convention held in the southern city. Making the trip were Peggy Porter Marquard of Carmel Valley, who was named editor of the Women's national Real Estate magazine, and Corum Jackson, president of the Carmel Board of Realtors. Miami Beach papers please copy.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S WHO IS IT?

Our "Who Is It?" this week is Monterey County's number one dog--the wearer for life of the first dog tag issued each year. Gary Stillwell was accorded this honor as a puppy when he was first given to General Joseph W. Stillwell. Asked by Joe West of Del Monte Kennels to have a look at a litter of giant schnauzers from which to make his choice, the General said, "That's my dog," as he picked up the six-month older who bounced forth to greet him.

Mrs. Stillwell was not so sure. "You can't do that to me," she said when told that Gary was to join the family. "I'll have to walk him, we'll have dog fights, and I don't like fights." But one look from those enormous wandering eyes was enough. Gary had come to stay, fights or no fights.

At "school" Gary learned the principles of guarding and at an early age took full responsibility for his house and grounds. Added to this duty was that of accounting for the activities of the members of his family. Never away from the General's side, he was unwilling to be separated from him even at meal time. As soon as he was tall enough to rest his nose on the table's edge, there it lay motionless throughout the meal while he watched his master's every move. "But there's the matter of soiling the tablecloth," protested Mrs. Stillwell. "We'll wash it," replied the General, and Gary's place at table was assured.

Of an even and obliging disposition as he was growing up, Gary gave no trouble whatever except upon the one occasion when he was expected to do credit, publicly, to his family. Heeding urgent requests that he be entered in the dog show, his family finally consented. Gary, however, was not of the same mind--he did not wish to perform and could be prevailed upon to stay only if some member of the family stayed with him every moment. As the time for judging schnauzers dragged on interminably, from 11 o'clock to early afternoon, and still there was no call for presentation of candidates, Gary won out--he and his family departed, and it remains a mystery to this day what color his ribbon would have been.

As a young man he devoted a good deal of thought and attention to the welfare of the nine Stillwell grandchildren, but in later years his chief concern has been the happiness of his beloved mistress. So, in quiet seclusion on Carmel Point in a house of Spanish architecture designed for an American family whose members speak Chinese fluently there lives a German dog with a Welsh name. for Gary is short for Gareth, and Gareth is the middle "syllable" of Llanfairpwllgwynglgogareth-where-drob-worth-sant-asilllogogoth--a name which Mrs. Stillwell, visiting Wales as a young girl, saw stretched across the entire side of the railroad station of a small Welsh town.

Gary today is a gentleman of the old school with courtly manners and dignified mien--an individual worthy of his Abou Ben Adam place on the roster of Peninsula dogs.

how does your garden grow?

By Edith L. Brattin
F. R. H. S.

When deer are hungry they will eat almost anything you have to offer in your garden. Deer repellants may be sprayed on the foliage and are satisfactory if used properly, but spraying large plantings entails added expense. There are a few plants and shrubs which they do not like as well as others and will usually leave alone unless they are very hungry. Plants or shrubs with prickly foliage or thorns, those with a pungent odor, some grey foliage plants, and anything with a bitter taste, deer generally avoid. The following list is far from complete and certainly not fool-proof, but it may be helpful in planting large areas exposed to deer.

Fabiana imbricata; heathers in variety; ceanothus--most varieties; berberis--all varieties; conifers--nearly all species and varieties; phylladelphus Mexicana; pyracanthas and in most cases, cotoneasters. Acacias--most varieties; Eugenia; Pimelia decussata; Diosmas; Cistus pupureus and probably C. maculatus; Myrtus Ugni; Lep-tospermum laevigatum; Photinia arbutifolia; Arbutus Unedo and A. Menziesii; Hakea suaveolens; Elaeagnus pungens; Japanese quince; pittosporum crassifolium and in some cases P. Tobira.

Some of the smaller shrubs and plants they leave alone more often than others are Fele-cia Petiolatum, Veronica Shata-mica, thymes, Lavendula veris, Santolina chamaecyparissae, Acanthus mollis, Convolvulus Mauritanicus and C. Cneorum, Echium famuosum, Cerastium tomentosum, Allysum saxatile, Geranium fragrantissima and G. oderatissima (though they will probably eat the flowers off of these).
